Assured that Whole Town Council is Behind Police Committee-Westerly Invited to Enter Trolley League-Michael Higgins Suffers Paralytic Shock-Board of Trade Fanquet Tonight.

John McGann of New York, made a brief visit to Westerly relatives Wed-nesday. He was formerly commissary sergeant of the Third regiment.

The wife of John T. Murphy, formerly of Pawcatuck, died Wednesday at her home in Woonsocket, and will be buried in St. Michael's cemetery.

The body of Mrs. Joanna Hagerty arrived in Westerly from Boston Tues-day morning, and a mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Michael's church. Burial was in St. Michael's cemetery.

of Dr. Porter as though the events oc-curred but a year ago. Dr. Porter has always maintained a strict reticence regarding his relations with President Lincoln and a stricter one in regard to the disposition of the body of John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of the president. He was the only commis-sioned officer present at the execution and examined the body after death. "The body of Booth," said Dr. Porter. "now reposes unmarked in a Balti-more cemetery." After the hanging it was delivered to the family of the murderer on the strictest promise that there should be no funeral services, and no monument, stone or mound ever be Among his possessions is a piece of the blood-stained dress worn by Miss Laura Keene, who was seated in the box with Lincoln, the night of the shooting, and who held his head in her lap as he bled profusely from the wound. The piece of silk shows two well-defined stains of the president's blood. Accompanying this memento-is a letter written by Miss Keene certifying to its authenticity.

Another souvenir is a letter written by President Lincoln to Lieut.-General Grant, assuming full responsibility for enlisting the confederate soldiers in New Way to Keep Warm.

A novel scheme to avoid some of the extreme discomfitures of the co'd wave extreme discomfitures of the co'd wave was tried by a man from Harwhiten Tuesday. When the man arrived in the center he commenced throwing potatoes out of his pockets into the street. When asked why he was throwing vegetables away when everything is so high, he said that he uses potatoes as substitutes for scapstones. He has the potatoes baked before leaving home, places them in different pockets and could ride a long distance and keep his hands comfortably warm.

Annual Report of Milk Inspector.

At a special meeting of the Westerly town council, with every member in attendance, Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock, the whole Westerly police force, including the chief, was on the carpet. It was a session that rivalled in Interest the regular council meeting of Monday, when Mrs. Mary Graff, owner of the Martin house building, freely aired her opinion as to the police committee and police force and their methods.

The cops of the town, presented with the facts, thought that there had been misunderstanding in the past. The officers thought that the police committee had not always been backed up by all the members of the council in their efforts to enforce the law. The police were given plainly to understand that the whole council is behind the police committee and that the law must be observed and enforced impartially.

A vote was passed by the council of typhoid fever at his home in Colorado.

Considerable of the proposed new addition to the Washington Trust company's building will be devoted to the safety deposit business.

John McGann of New York, made a brief visit to Westerly relatives Wednesday. He was formerly commissary servent of the Third regiment.

ley and H. N. Burdick were again made the committee.

The council passed an ordinance brought it by Town Solicitor Agard re-garding the sale of cider. It was also recommended that a petition be brought to the state legislature for a change in the laws governing the sale of cider. The council adjourned after voting money to the town clerk to pay for the return of birth certificates.

Charles H. Humphrey of New London, formerly manager of the New London, formerly manager of the New London and New Britain teams in the Connecticut Baseball league, was in Westerly, Wednesday, in the interests of the new trolley league to be comprised of teams representing Norwich, New London and Willimantic, and probably Westerly.

Mr. Humphrey as a special delegate from the league had an interview with Thomas Chapman, an old time baseball player, former manager of the White Rock team and coach of the Westerly High school team, and urged him to accept the management of the Westerly Trolley league team.

Miss Marjorie Culvonelli, formerly of Westerly, now leading sololist in a Providence church, was the soprano sololist at the concert of the Arion club given in the Mathewson street church, Providence, Tuesday evening, and her efforts received deserved applause.

Michael Higgins of Pawcatuck, pro-prietor of the Rhode Island pharmacy, is unconscious from a paralytic shock at his home in West Broad street. Mr. Higgins was stricken Tuesday evening and his right side is affected. His son, Dr. Edward Higgins of Manchester, ar-rived Wednesday morning.

The returns of vital statistics made to Town Clerk Everett E. Whipple by the ministers and physicians of Westerly show that during the year 1999 there were 109 marriages, exactly the same number as in 1908. There were 118 deaths in 1909, or 16 less than in the previous year. The number of births returned for 1909 is 170, or 17 more than 1908. The number of births

PROBATION LAW.

More Than Half of Those Placed Under It Keep Straight.

Probation Officer F. W. Willey has made up his report for the last year, says the Middletown Press, During 1909 fifty persons were placed on probation in the city court and under his care. More than half of those placed on probation kept the agreement to pay their fines and reported regularly. Among the other half there were some hard cases, men that would rather go to jall than otherwise. In the opinion of Probation Officer Willey the probation law helps some and others it does not.
